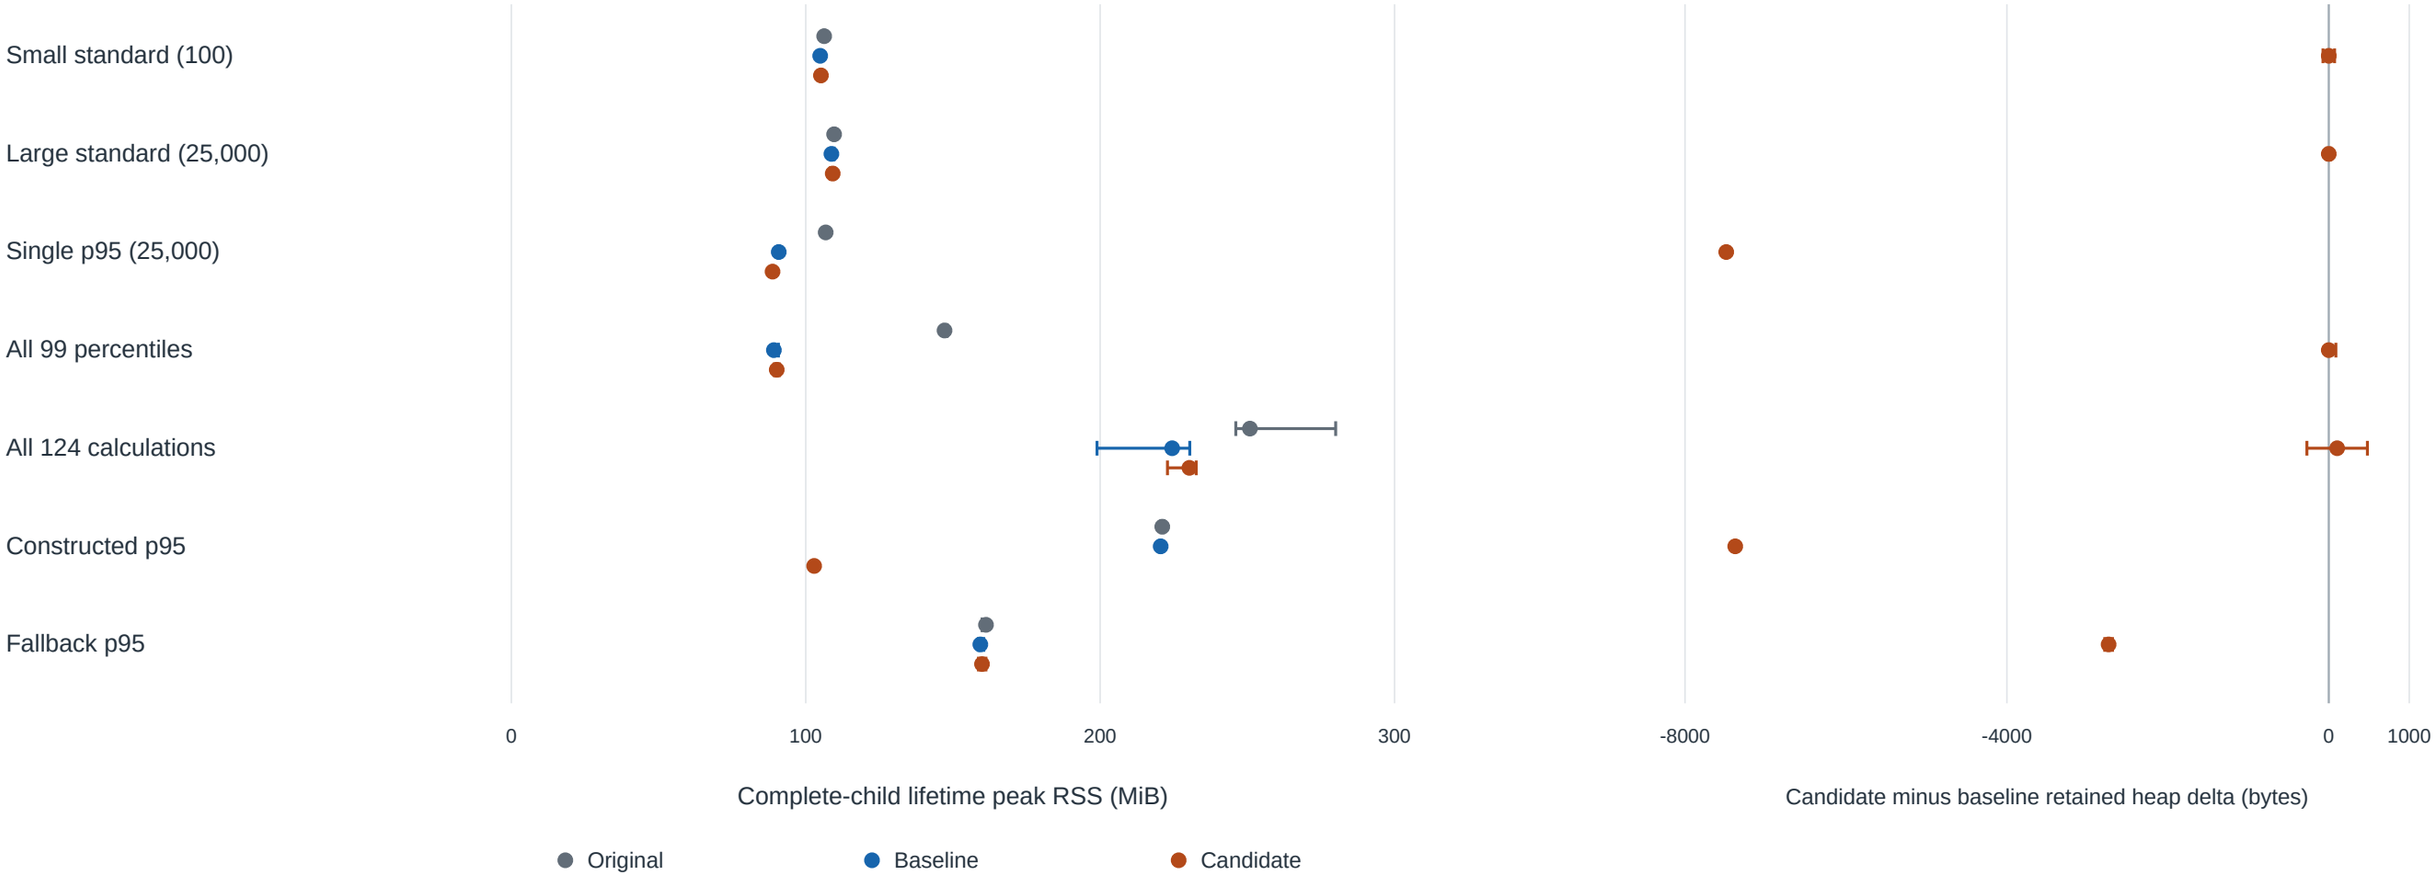
Isolated memory: lifetime peak RSS and signed paired retained heap differences

One implementation per fresh child; candidate has two modules. Seven repetitions; observed min/max bars.



Signed paired values are not clipped. Heap deltas include GC variation; release diagnostics also include serializer/cache-check pressure.

No cumulative allocation, exact intermediate peak, process-tree isolation, machine isolation or leak claim.